

THE WEEK OF PRAYER.

Opened Yesterday Throughout the World for Young Men.

THE CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS

To be Helped by Prayer—Meetings held at the Y. M. C. A. Hall and Fourth Street Church—Brief Synopses of Rev. Mr. Zimmermann's Sermons.

During the coming week all the Young Men's Christian Associations throughout the world are having their week of prayer. Yesterday the prayer week opened at the Fourth Street Methodist Episcopal Church. Mr. A. A. Zimmermann, of Baltimore, responded to the invitation of the Wheeling Association, and came on to lead the services here. Yesterday afternoon a successful meeting was held at the Y. M. C. A. hall, at which Mr. Zimmermann delivered an address. Meetings will be held every evening this week at the hall. On Wednesday the services will begin at a quarter to nine o'clock, so as not to interfere with the services at the churches. On all other evenings the time has been set for eight o'clock.

SERMON LAST NIGHT.
Yesterday evening successful services were held at the Fourth Street M. E. church. Dr. Riker, the pastor, stated the object of the meeting and, after the singing of the hymn, "Jesus, Lover of my Soul," breathed a fervent prayer for the success of the prayer week. The quartette of the Y. M. C. A. then sang the hymn, "Whiter than Snow," after which the entire congregation participated in the hymn, "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

Rev. Mr. Zimmermann took his text from Second Kings, 6:17: "And Elisha prayed and said, 'Lord, I pray thee that he may open his eyes that he may see.' And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw; and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha."

HOW MANY GRANDSIRIES, asked Mr. Zimmermann, would like to be a young man on this lightning-lighted, steam-driven afternoon of the Nineteenth century? The hopes and the aspirations of so many hang on the future of young men that it behooves them to make the most of their opportunities. There are three safeguards which are thrown around most young men—the names of home, mother and heaven. Fortunate is the young man who, when the storms of temptation surround him, can fly, as to a haven of refuge, to a brave, God-fearing and trusting mother. Mr. Zimmermann related a personal experience of an occasion when associates had led him into temptation. At the crucial moment the recollection of his mother saved him from falling into a depth of degradation whence he might never have emerged.

Of the tender recollections that cluster around the name of home, he related the well known episode of the opposing armies camped on either side of the river. One army would sing a patriotic tune of the North, answered from the opposite side by one of the South; when in an interval of silence a single voice intoned the words of "HOME, SWEET HOME," joined in by a voice here and there, both armies united in the chorus, and the first tears since childhood were shed by hardened men. He spoke of a house he had entered into some time before, while engaged in work for the association. In this so-called home certain rooms were closed to the children, as being too fine for their use, the consequence being that the boys soon could be seen where such things were found as were kept from them at home.

The preacher strove to inculcate reverence for the holy name of God, and for His house, the home to which many people go to pray. If there is a hell deeper than another, it is for those young men who, in the face of a mother's prayer, in spite of a father's admonition, persist in following the wrong path. He expressed the hope that fathers and mothers are weaving through home influences the strand that holds so many young men to the doing of what is right. He called on them to unite their prayers during the coming week, that the service of prayer would meet with success and the young men engaged in the work be strengthened.

AT THE THEATRES

Good Attractions Announced for This Week at Both Local Houses.

This evening Thomas E. Murray, late of the Murray & Murphy team, will appear at the Opera House in the old and funny favorite, "Our Irish Visitors." It is full of fun, and it is said that Mr. Murray has surrounded himself with an unusually strong supporting company. The piece will be seen here but one night.

A Strong Specialty Show.

On Wednesday and Thursday next, commencing with a Wednesday matinee, Devoy & Smiley's International Comiques will appear. The company is made up of the best known and most meritorious specialty people in the country, including Bob Stickney, the famous rider; Max Hugo, Barnum's funny clown; John Devoy and a host of singers and performers. The performance will be sure to be enjoyable to people of all tastes.

Vreeland's Minstrels To-Night.
This evening Vreeland's operatic minstrels will commence a three nights' engagement at the Grand. This company has the reputation of being one of the best on the road. A street parade will be given at 11 o'clock, when Vreeland's gold cornet band, consisting of fourteen of the best artists, will appear in full uniform. The rush for tickets has already commenced, and the standing-room sign will probably be out before 8 o'clock. Seats on sale at Genth's, 1007 Main street.

"The Black Thorn."
Joseph J. Sullivan, one of the best and most original Irish comedians of the day, will be at the Grand the last three nights of this week in his great comedy-drama, "The Black Thorn." Mr. Sullivan has a style that is entirely original, and his supporting company is always first class. He is a great favorite among all classes, especially the children, and is sure to do a great business.

Stage Snowflakes.
John Lamb, the drum major of the "Rising Sun Roarers" band of the Blue Jeans company, while helping Robert Cowan, a stage machinist, to adjust the saw for the mill scene, at Elmhurst, N. Y., caught his clothes in the teeth of the saw. He fell on the blade, gashing his legs badly.

Miss Irene Hernandez, the soubrette of the "Our Irish Visitors" company, has several Wheeling friends, who are glad to meet her again. She is a clever and attractive actress. She and Miss Marie Guerdan dance a pretty Spanish dance.

The Springer Lithograph Company, of New York, has made a portrait in costume of Lillian Russell in "La Cigale," which is one of the finest art works in the line ever produced. A copy adorns the INTELLIGENCER's dramatic sanctum.

Orrin Hollis, the famous bareback rider, and one of the principal equestrian stars all last summer with the Robinson show, is lying at the point of death at Birmingham, Ala.

The New York Epoch remarks that "Nobody should patronize a theatre which is not fireproof from top to bottom and which has not ample means of egress."

At Martin's Ferry the attractions this week will be "Black Thorn" on Wednesday night, and Vreeland's minstrels on Saturday night.

William Muldoon has joined "The Son Queen" for a few weeks, and will open his vaudeville season again in December.

Both the Vreeland's Minstrels and "Our Irish Visitors" companies arrived yesterday.

Modjeska closed a successful two weeks' engagement at Boston Saturday night.

The Robinson circus went into winter quarters at Cincinnati Saturday.

The Emma Juch opera company is having hard work to keep alive.

"Grimes Collar Door" will play six weeks in New York this season.

The Bostonians are at the Duquesne, Pittsburgh, this week.

Poor Tony Hart died in a New York asylum last week.

Maurice Darcy has left the "Dear Irish Boy."

Prominent Odd Fellow Dead.

Saturday evening a telegram dated Parkersburg was received by Grand Master Godfrey Schulz, of the I. O. O. F., stating that A. F. Lang died in that town at 5 o'clock that afternoon. The deceased was a prominent Odd Fellow, being past grand representative at the time of his death. He was also past grand dictator of the Knights of Honor, and at the time of his death a representative to the Supreme Lodge. Mr. Lang was about fifty years of age, and formerly lived in Wheeling, in the Eighth ward.

Upon the receipt of the telegram a meeting was held and the following reply to the telegram was sent:

WHEELING, W. VA., Nov. 7, 1891.
John R. Hilde, Secretary Sharon Lodge No. 28, I. O. O. F., Parkersburg W. Va.:

We sincerely regret that we cannot be with you at the funeral of our friend and brother. Please convey to the family and friends of Brother A. F. Lang, past grand representative, our most sincere expressions of sympathy in their bereavement.

The Grand Lodge of West Virginia has lost an active participant in its labors, and Odd Fellowship a true and tried exponent.

GODFREY SCHULZ,
Grand Master.

MARTIN'S FERRY.

Terrill and Paxton to be Arraigned—Explosion Saturday—Personal, etc.

John W. Terrill and William Paxton, two of the three men who while under the influence of whiskey entered the store of John W. Crooks last Wednesday and made such a cowardly and disgraceful attack on the proprietor, without any provocation whatever, other than that Crooks is an active Republican and had worked hard for his party during the campaign, will be arraigned before Squire Theo. Keller this morning. Warrants were sworn out on Friday for Terrill and Paxton, two for the former and one for the latter. Terrill will answer for assault and battery and malicious destruction of property and Paxton for assault and battery, in addition to the charges of Officers Och and Bowman who made the arrests on Wednesday. Terrill and Paxton say they made fools of themselves, and knowing that the unprecedented outrage in which they took part is condemned in the strongest terms by the people of Martin's Ferry, and fearing that they will be severely, but justly, dealt with by law, they are repentant and are willing to make apologies, but the law will take its course.

The large air receiver at the blast furnace exploded with terrific force on Saturday morning about half past nine o'clock, shaking the earth and many buildings for blocks around and breaking many windows. The engine stopped after the nine o'clock cast was made and the gas went back into the receiver, causing it to explode. Both ends were blown out. The head at the south end was broken in two at the middle. One half was blown across the street and the other half struck a two-story brick house near by. The other end fell near the engine house. One man jumped from the top of the engine house to the ground, but was not hurt. Walter Duff, who was near the engine house, was struck on the knee with a flying brick, cutting a small gash, and Ed., son of Isaac Lewis, colored, was struck on the leg and somewhat injured by the concussion.
